1. ABOUT SPAIN

Most foreigners think about Spain as sun, good weather all year round, and beaches. However, Spain is much more than Costa del Sol. It is drenched in the historical pageantry of empires and conquistadors, the artistic legacy of Goya, Velázquez, Picasso and Dalí, and the romance of Don Quixote.

According to most guides about Spain, the best time to visit us is in spring or autumn because in summer it is so warm and in winter is a bit cold. However, you will enjoy your visit all year around. In every season there is always something exciting to do or some cultural event to discover somewhere.

Don't forget to enjoy our most known festivities:

Carnaval takes place throughout the country in late February; despite of the wildest is said to be in Sitges, the most known is set in Canarias and in Cádiz. In March, Valencia has a week-long party known as Las Fallas, pride of the city, which is marked by all-night dancing, drinking, first-class fireworks and colourful processions.

Semana Santa (Holy Week) is the week leading up to Easter Sunday with parades of holy images through the streets; Seville is the place to be if you can get accommodation.

In late April, the Feria de Abril in Seville is a week-long party counterbalancing the religious fervor of Semana Santa.

The last Wednesday in August, the town of Buñol, in Valencia, goes bonkers with La Tomatina, a big huge fight inside the town, where the weapons are tons and tons of tomatoes.

Some figures about Spain:

- Area: ~ 500.000 km²
- Population: ~ 50 million

2. KNOW VALENCIA

Valencia is the third biggest city in Spain, with an approximate population of 800.000 habitants, and the double including the population beyond the limits of the city. Valencia is located in the East coast of Spain, being part of the Mediterranean sea.

Valencia is worldwide known by the architecture of “City of Arts and Sciences”. But Valencia is much more, it is a city with a very rich history, from Roman’s time to present, that in one moment of its story arrived to be the capital of the kingdom of Aragon, one of the kingdoms base of the modern Spain.

Valencia is a relative big city in Spain, but the most important areas in Valencia can be easily identified to have a general orientation in the city.

In a first approach, we can say that Valencia is divided by the old river Turia, now converted in a long and beautiful garden crossed with a set of interesting bridges, architecturally and historically. The garden finishes with the “City of Arts and Sciencies”.

To orientate the most relevant bridge is the Aragon’s bridge, that connect Aragon’s Avenue with the Marques del Turia Avenue, two very important avenues; the first one located in the North side of the river, and the second one in the South side, being a very commercial avenue.

The South side is the first expansion of the city (Eixample, Russafa, Extramurs and Patraix), and the old city. The old city is very relevant to do tourism, is the most beautiful and classic part of the city with places like North Station, Central Market and Longa, the City Hall Square, the Queen Square and the Virgin Square and the old doors of the city. To go shopping and drink something you can go to Colon Street and El Carmen respectively.

The North side includes Blasco Ibañez Avenue and the Universities Area, which is adapted to the students with lots of pubs and cheap restaurants. At the East, taking the Port’s

Spring Course 18

Avenue, we can arrive to the Malvarrosa's beach, with a lot of restaurants where we can eat a good... and expensive paella.

The city is very flat and very good for bike riding. You can rent a bike from the Valenbisi public service, which depending on the time that you dispose can be a good or bad idea, because it is a little expensive to use it in short term. If you have time, it is a perfect way to enjoy and discover the city. Furthermore, Valencia has bus and metro service.

3. WEATHER

The weather in Valencia is possibly one of the best of Spain, due to its proximity to the sea. That produces a regulation of the temperatures along the year.

In Autumn, the temperatures are normally soft, between 24°C and 15°C. It is also common a phenomenon called “gota freda”, literally “cold drop”, which produces very intensive rains during a short period of time (less than an hour).

In Winter, the temperatures go down, but never arrive to 0°C. During the rest of the year, the day is sunny and hot.

4. SPANISH AND REGIONAL FOOD

The food in Spain has a huge variety, and this includes the regional food of Valencia. Spanish people have their meals later than other Europeans. This is the Spanish eating timetable: breakfast may be between 8.30 and 9.30; lunch is between 14.00 and 15.00; and dinner is within 21.00 and 22.00. Of course, for social meals, the finishing hour can be very late (even 17.00 for lunch and 1.00 for dinner).

Cuisine is an important key in the Spanish culture development; it is based in the famous Mediterranean diet. It means the usage of numerous fresh vegetables and the indispensable olive oil, which is also known as the ‘gold liquid’. Spanish cuisine cannot be conceived without it as long as we use this as the only grease or fat for frying and cooking. It tastes a little bit stronger than other oils. It can be noticed when consuming it in crude, for example in salads. It comes principally from Andalucía, the southern region of Spain. It is quite expensive, but it doesn’t matter for Spanish people, they will never stop buying it.

There are many typical dishes depending on the year periods and the region where you are. Some of the main dishes you can find around Spain are:

Spring Course 18

Paella. Although it is typical on the Valencian Mediterranean coast, you can have paella everywhere. It is mainly made of rice, but you can also add shellfish, chicken, 'garrofó', beans and others. The definitive fact about paella is the pan where it is cooked. It is a short and flat pan, and it is mandatory to cook in a wood fire or in a gas heater, which must cover all the pan.

Gazpacho. It is the perfect food for summer. It is a soup made from tomatoes, pepper, cucumber, onion, garlic, olive oil... The most important thing is that it is served cold! It is used as refreshment during the hot days in July and August. You can even add a few ice cubes.

Horchata. The best cold drink you can have. It is also typical Valencian. It looks like milk, but it tastes much better.

Tortilla de patata. Maybe one of the most known Spanish dishes. It is an omelette made of potatoes, eggs and onion. It is very typical eating it for dinner or as a 'tapa'.

Jamón. It is a kind of cured ham that we use to eat with bread. Any time is good to taste such delicious meat. It is one of the most appreciated meal for foreigners. A good piece can reach very high prices.

Tapas. You cannot forget the tapas. These are little portions of food that you get for free in some bars when you order a beer. Before lunch or in the beginning of the night, people go out from bar to bar drinking and eating tapas. There are many types and they are made of potatoes, fish, meat, cheese... You can combine them.

And of course... SANGRÍA!!! It is made with wine, lemonade and pieces of different fruits. In Valencia, it also exists a variant of sangria: 'water of Valencia'. It is made with gin/vodka, sugar, orange juice and champagne.

5. CURRENCY AND PRICES

Since the first of January 2002, we are using the Euro. For those who are not familiar with it:

- Bank notes fractions are: 500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5 €
- Coin fractions are: 2, 1, 0.50, 0.20, 0.10, 0.05, 0.02 and 0.01 €

People coming from Eastern Europe might need to exchange money. They will be able to do it specially in the touristic areas, where there are many places to do it. You can also go to bank branches, travel agencies, some hotels and even shops.

If you want to use a credit card or traveller cheques, there are many places which accept both. In ATM machines in the streets, you can use the most common cards: VISA, Master Card...

Valencia is not as expensive as other Western European cities, and it is cheaper than other important cities in Spain like Madrid or Barcelona. Here are some average prices:

Bread/Baguette	0.55 – 1 €	Disco entrance	6 – 12 €
Coffee	0.60 – 1.20€	Cinema ticket	5 – 7 €
Ice-cream	1 – 4 €	1 Underground/bus trip	1.50 €
Mineral water (1/2 L bottle)	0.75 – 1.50€	10 Underground/bus trips	8 €
Milk (1 L brick)	0.70 €	Cigarettes (20 units pack)	4 €
Lunch	6 – 12 €	Newspaper	1 €
Beer	1.2 – 3 €	Drink in disco	4 – 9 €

6. ELECTRICTY

The electric current used throughout Spain is the European standard 220-240 V, A.C. 50 Hz. The sockets are two-pin, and adapters may be bought at most electrical and lamp stores. Do not forget to take a look of the picture!

7. HEALTH

If you come from a European Union country you only need the EU sanitary card (the blue one), so if you need medical assistance, you should present your card, which will give you the same entitlements than those of a Spanish citizen (medical care free of charge and the refund of part of the cost of medicines).

European Union citizens: DO NOT FORGET TO GET YOUR EU SANITARY CARD BEFORE COMING TO VALENCIA!!!

If you are not a citizen of the European Union but your country has signed an agreement for medical care with Spain (you can find out about this in the Social Security of your country), you should bring the appropriate form and act in the same way as the members of the European Union.

If you are not a citizen of the European Union and your country hasn't any medical agreement with Spain, you will have to hire a private medical insurance. This should give you full coverage for medical care during your stay in Spain.

8. EMERGENCY

9. TRAVELING TO VALENCIA

DO NOT HESITATE TO TELL US IN ADVANCE WHEN AND WHERE YOU ARE ARRIVING, WE WILL DO OUR BEST TO PICK YOU UP. Anyway, here you have some guidelines to arrive at the meeting point in case you have to come on your own.

Valencia airport is Manises, the closest airport to the city by far. You can reach the centre of the city from there by underground (lines 3 and 5, 4.90€) and bus (Aero-Bus 6 am – 22 pm, every 20 minutes and line 150 5.25 am – 23.55 pm; 2.50€). The meeting point is the tram station 'La Carrasca' in lines 4-6. After that, we will go to the 'Casa del Alumno', inside the UPV.

Despite there are several means of transport in Valencia, the underground, which is called 'Metro' in Spain, is the cheapest and fastest way to get to the meeting point. But be careful! Underground only works between 6.30 am and 23.30 pm.

Here you can check the Valencian Metro network: http://www.metrovalencia.es/descargas/pdf/PlanoRed_Metrovalencia_Julio2016.pdf

If you have to travel in the night (from 23.30 pm to 6.30 am), you can take a taxi with a cost between 6 and 7€ around the city; and 20€ to arrive to the airport.

An underground ticket for one trip is valid as long as you don't leave the metro network. If you get out, the next time that you enter you will have to buy a new ticket.

If you will stay longer in Valencia or you will come with several people, it is worthy to buy a 10 trips ticket. It costs 8.20€ and can be used by more than one person at the same time provided you carry it with you all the trip.

Another good alternative is to rent a bike from Valenbisi service, which costs 10€ the weekly service. Watch out! Only the first 30 minutes are included in the fee, you need to park the bike before this time passes so you can continue using the service without additional charges. Here you have the webpage of Valenbisi: <http://www.valenbisi.com/>

If you arrive by bus, you can take the metro line 1 in Turia station or you can take the bus number 29. If you arrive by train, take the metro in Joaquín Sorolla station, line 5.

Spring Course 18

ARRIVAL FROM MADRID AIRPORT (MAD)

If you wish to get to Valencia from Madrid, there are multiple options. To get to Madrid's city center (train station, bus station, etc) from the airport, you can either pick Metro (underground) or Cercanías (trains). Cercanias is normally cheaper.

Madrid has a huge airport, with 4 terminals. If you get to T1,2 or 3, you'll have to go to the centre by metro. The ticket will cost you around 4.5€-6.00€ depending on where you're heading.

You can check the map in this link <http://www.callejeromadrid.eu/images/plano-metro-madrid.jpg>

If you get to the T4, you can pick a train instead. Tickets cost 2.5€. This is the map of the lines:

http://upload.wikimedia.org/wikipedia/commons/e/ec/Cercan%C3%ADas_Madrid_Zonas2011.png

By bus: 4h aprox.

You can buy a bus ticket for around 26-30€ in <http://www.avanzabus.com/>

The bus station in Madrid is located in the Mendez Alvaro Station (metro and cercanias), to which you can arrive by train or metro.

By train: 2-4h. aprox.

Trains are usually more expensive, unless there's some kind of offer. Train tickets can be bought directly from this website <http://www.renfe.com/>. You can also buy them at the station, but you would be buying the general ticket this way, which is usually more expensive.

Trains depart from Atocha Station/Puerta de Atocha. You can get there by metro or cercanías.

By car: 3,5 - 4h. aprox.

If you're an adventurer, you can use <https://www.blablacar.es/> . The trip will cost you around 15-20€.

Spring Course 18

ARRIVAL FROM BARCELONA AIRPORT (BCN)

If you decide to get to Valencia from Barcelona, there are also multiple options:

Firstly, to get to Barcelona from the Airport (Barcelona Airport BCN), you can get either:

- Bus (Aerobus) for 5.90€, or 10.20€ if you purchase the return ticket at the time. They depart from Terminal 1 and Terminal 2, it's the fastest way but also more expensive.

Info: <http://www.aerobusbcn.com/>

- Train (Rodalies) for 2€. Only if you arrive to TERMINAL 2. Terminal 1 doesn't have a train station but you can take a free shuttle that will take you to T2. However, if you arrive in T1 it's better to take the bus (check next bullet point).

Info: http://www20.gencat.cat/portal/site/rodalies?newLang=en_GB

Map: <http://www.renfe.com/viajeros/cercanias/planos/barcelona.png>

- Local bus (46) for 2€. You can take it both from T1 and T2 and it'll take you to Plaça Espanya. However, if you need to take the train to go to Valencia from Sants Train Station then it's better to go by train (previous bullet point) because from Plaça Espanya you would have to take the metro line3 (green) and buy a new ticket (2€).

Info: <http://www.tmb.cat/en/linia-de-bus/-/bus/46>

ARRIVAL FROM ALICANTE AIRPORT (ALC)

The only way to get to Alicante city from the Airport is by bus. The same bus line(C-6) connects the airport with the Train Station and the Bus Station. It costs 2.75 € and its frequency is 20 minutes. Here you can check the links:

- Timetable aerobusalicante.es/index.php/horarios-autobuses-aeropuerto-alicante/horarios-linea-c6-aeropuerto-alicante/?lang=en
- Route followed www.subus.es/Lineas/Informacion/FolletoWebAeropuerto.pdf.

In order to get to Valencia from Alicante you have three options:

By Bus: 2.30- 5h.

Tickets can be bought online on this website: <http://www.alsa.es/en/>. They cost around 20-24€.

By train: 2h. approx.

Train tickets cost around 20 €, It depends on the kind of offer (eg. promotional offers, etc, more details on the website and Train Station). Train tickets can be bought directly from this website <http://www.renfe.com/>. You can also buy them at the station, but you would be buying the standard ticket, which is usually more expensive.

By car: 2h. approx.

If you're an adventurer, you can use <https://www.blablacar.com/> . It's a website where people with a car that need to go somewhere offer free seats so you can travel with them, thus sharing the gas costs (aka. carpooling). It's the cheaper way to travel within Spain. The trip will cost you around 10€, and it is safe. It is recommended to check the opinions and comments about the driver before you decide.

Spring Course 18

ARRIVAL FROM GIRONA AIRPORT (GRO)

If you are thinking about getting to Barcelona through the Airport of Girona (GRO), you will have to take a bus to Barcelona. You can get a single bus ticket at the airport for 16€, or 25€ round trip. The bus will leave you at the bus station Barcelona Nord in about 1h10min.

Info: <http://www.barcelona-girona-airport.com/Timetable-bus-from-Girona-airport-to-Barcelona>

Now that you've made it to the city centre, you can get to Valencia in the following ways:

By bus: 4h aprox.

Tickets can be bought online in this website: <http://www.alsa.es/en/>. They cost around 28€. Buses depart from the bus station Barcelona Nord, which is located near the stations: Arc de Triomf (metro and Rodalies) and Marina (metro).

Info: <http://www.tmb.cat/en/linies-de-metro>

A map of the metro lines can be found here:

<http://www.redtransporte.com/img/transporte/barcelona/metro-barcelona/plano-metro-barcelona.jpg>

By train: 3-5h

Trains are usually more expensive, unless there's some kind of offer. Train tickets can be bought directly from this website <http://www.renfe.com/>. You can also buy them at the station, but you would be buying the general ticket this way, which is usually more expensive.

Trains depart from Estació de Sants. You can get there by metro or Rodalies.

By car: 3.30-4h aprox

If you're an adventurer, you can use <https://www.blablacar.es/>. It's a website where people with a car that need to go somewhere offer free seats so you can travel with them, thus sharing the gas costs. It's the cheaper way to travel inside Spain. The trip will cost you around 20-25€, and it is safe.

10. TEMPORAL LODGING

If you arrive sooner than the starting date of the course don't worry, here you can see a short list of inn or equivalents for your temporal lodging:

- First, call to the BEST organizers, maybe they or some member of BEST can host you
- Like an expensive, but good alternative, you can go to the Galileo Galilei Hall. That is inside the UPV, at 1 min of the meeting point. Phone: +34(96)3352000. Prices depend on the kind of service you require (29-39€)

11. BEHAVIOUR

All day long:

- Punctuality: be on time at the meeting points

During the working sessions:

- Do not miss the sessions
- Do not eat or drink during the sessions

At the social activities:

- Have fun and be the craziest at the party!!! :-)
- Bear in mind that you have to be 100% functional next morning!

12. DON'T FORGET TO BRING

- Passport or ID card
- VISA (for those who need it)
- Travel and medical insurance
- Student card
- Formal clothes for the Official Closing ceremony
- Clothes and shoes for walking, sightseeing and playing sports
- Sun cream
- Cap or sunglasses
- Swimsuit, flipflops and towels
- Umbrella
- Personal stuff

There is the possibility to leave the main luggage in Valencia and bring only a small one to the Weekend Trip. It would make the trip easier and more comfortable.

We will inform you about more necessary stuff that should be brought if required.
